honorable mention african studies review best anthology or edited collection prize 2025 this book brings together the first book collection of african research in mathematics education in multilingual societies and chronicles current research in different linguistic contexts across the african continent including algeria namibia malawi morocco rwanda south africa on issues of multilingualism in mathematics education but more importantly it foregrounds pertinent issues for future research with many of the authors building on earlier path breaking african research the book is a unique contribution of careful thinking through how linguistic diversity and multilingualism manifest in ways that differ from one geopolitical context to another this volume is an important contribution to the growing recognition of multilingualism as the global linguistic dispensation in mathematics education it is an invitation to how we might as an international community where more and more multilingualism is the norm rather than an exception pay more attention to the multilingual agency and capabilities of both students and teachers in order to better harness the epistemic potential of multiple languages in contexts of language diversity in mathematics education this paper overviews patterns in bond issuance in local and external markets by firms in six large latin american countries data suggest that despite rising issuance local markets remain small and shallow in several countries nevertheless since greater funding is available to many firms in both markets we investigate the factors that may explain the firm s choice on where to issue a bond using an unbalanced panel of firm and market level indicators for years 1995 2015 we control for variables representing several theories of capital structure and the results show that firm characteristics such as size and liquidity increase the likelihood of firms to issue externally with respect to market characteristics the market completeness hypothesis generates the most support where market scale and depth are most important for the issuer s choice of the market suggesting that local markets will have to become deeper to draw more firms and investment
