charles haddon spurgeon the prince of preachers composed and polished the treasury of david over the span of nearly half his ministry this incomparable commentary and omnibus on the psalms has been prized by christians ever since spurgeon s own commentary on every verse of the psalms is extremely insightful and by itself it quite rich in the treasury of david you will also find a wealth of illuminating extracts and quotes from hundreds of commentators contemporaries of spurgeon as well as the great puritan expositors of the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries homiletical hints on almost every verse concise sermon outlines provocative seed thoughts as well as useful bibliographies and an index of authors offer practical help for preaching and teaching whether you are teaching on the psalms studying them for personal devotions or simply intrigued by the writings of spurgeon you ll enjoy this splendid classic charles haddon spurgeon served for thirty years as preacher and pastor of london s six thousand seat metropolitan tabernacle which his growing congregation opened in 1861 his writings including thousands of sermons are still popular with pastors and devotional readers the revelation to john has been with us for about 2000 years and has been the subject of diverse attempts at interpretation the revelation as given is a vision of the end time work of the son of man and the sole purpose is to prepare humanity for that mission and offer them the chance to recognise the last envoy of god when he does come it is only with this understanding in view that the revelation can be appreciated all the promised messages for the end time are now available to us and i believe we are in a better position to understand the message of the revelation indeed i believe that we urgently need to understand its message the urge and pressure amongst all striving human spirits to unravel the mysteries of the revelation represents this need this study is not a substitute for the revelation but may be regarded as a call for a deeper study and hopefully an awakening to the need to experience the times in a more alert manner the work is offered in the recognition that the revelation is being fulfilled in this epoch and as such is a must read for all striving human spirits
