a history of the translation of the bible into chinese this book tells a fascinating story beginning with western missionaries working closely with chinese assistants they struggled for one hundred years to produce a version that would meet the needs of a growing chinese church succeeding in 1919 with publication of the chinese union version cuv celebrating the cuv s centennial this volume explores the uniqueness and contemporary challenges in the context of the history of chinese bible translation a topic that is attracting more and more attention peng s experiences give her a unique perspective and several advantages in conducting this research like the majority of readers of the cuv she grew up in mainland china when chinese christians went through severe political and economic ordeals she was there to witness the cuv comforting those who were suffering under persecution she has participated in chinese bible revision under the united bible societies she was also director of the commission on bible publication at the china christian council and chief editor of the cuv concise annotated version 1998

it is of strategic importance for international students and scholars to come under the umbrella of global missions the author is convinced there is need for a paradigm shift in global missions with over one million international students from practically every country on the face of the earth many being christian having come to the u s for their higher education we cannot afford to waste this golden opportunity reasons will be provided why this is our divine moment in history for christian leadership to rise up and take action the potential is there for us to create a tremendous impact for christ on nations which in the past have been difficult to reach god works in mysterious ways and this has to be one of them it is imperative that we get with god s program and focus on identifying christian international students soon after their arrival on campus training them biblically and theologically equipping them for their return home following them up after their return with support documentation is provided some from missionaries themselves showing that properly trained christian international students after returning home are much more effective than traditional foreign missionaries reasons why are clearly and with great conviction provided however we still need traditional foreign missionaries because of the fields being white unto harvest but the laborers are few the reader will be fascinated by the illustrations of those christian international students who returned home to accomplish feats for god on a scale that never before had been thought possible
