mr allen upward better known to fame as a war correspondent has attempted to give us a reading of the history of christianity down to the time of christ and however much we may disagree with some of his conclusions we must at least applaud the sincerity and the originality as well as the erudition of his effort mr upward finds in the dawn of christianity a story that has been told mystically from age to age its words and signs are inherited from a primeval language from prehistoric peoples and from tales that are still the bible of the peasant and the child it is he says a recrystallization of universal fears and hopes carried out in the crucible of a planetary heat wave whose coming had been more or less distinctly felt by a series of true prophets from zoroaster to john the baptist mr upward believes that christ was an historical personage but that the story of his life is an allegorical repetition of the greater story that is as old as the world it self to this end he collects all the threads of folklore within his reach all the superstitions that perhaps are not superstitions and that tend to show the stirrings of a higher consciousness and knowledge that culminates in the genius and the savior if sometimes he seems to be inadequate or superficial we must remember the greatness the almost incredible magnitude of the quarries from which he hews excerpt from the divine mysteries the divine treatment of sin and the divine mystery of peace i thankfully accept such light whencesoever it may come being sure that it is ultimately from the supreme fountain and that it will guide in the direction which we are all bound to pursue but i have not entered on the discussion of these points because my argument does not stand on the literal historical truth of the account which the bible gives us of the origz ms of the human race whatever may be proved to be the fact as to the outer history the inner history i hold to be true to the heart s core and part of the revelation of god nothing which i have heard or read has changed my views of the essential truth of this record as the history of man's spiritual development thus sin is born and grows a paradise a fall a discovery of the hard conditions of life to the sinner lit by a promise a hope that god would share them and make them ministers of redemption must lie it seems to me at the foundations of human history about the publisher forgotten books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books find more at forgottenbooks.com this book is a reproduction of an important historical work forgotten books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy in rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition we do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
